THE PURPLE SCHOOL'S 2015 SPANISH LANGUAGE BEE DON PEDRO'S AND OTHER COMMUNITY DONORS

May 15, 2015 (Williston, ND). The Purple School's annual Spanish Language Bee is almost here. The 2015 Spanish Language Bee will be held on Tuesday, May 19, at 3:30 pm at Trinity Christian School in Williston. This 3rd annual event allows local children to showcase their Spanish skills and to compete for cash and other prizes.

Joyce Shui, of The Purple School, which has taught children ten different languages over its 14-year-history, said, "I am thrilled to have such great community support for our local kids learning Spanish. Two weeks ago, I announced donations from American State Bank & Trust and Los Compadres. I'm so delighted to announce our addition of Ryan Motors, Don Pedro's, Walmart, 3 Amigos, My Swirl, and Taco John's to the ranks of generous donors who are supporting kids learning other languages through the 2015 Spanish Language Bee for Kids, a unique Williston event unlike any other event in the country."

Hector Trejo, General Manager of Don Pedro's said, "We're proud to be supporting this event for a second year in a row with this event. Many of our staff are bilingual, and we know firsthand how great it is to learn two languages at an early age. To have so many young children in Williston now learning Spanish as well as English is a source of great pride and admiration for us at Don Pedro's."

The Purple School's Spanish Language Bee provides children with an opportunity to publicly showcase their Spanish and to compete for prizes such as the $100 top prize, $50 second place, and $25 third place. All participants will also earn one glow stick per successful round as well as be entered into drawings for various other prizes. Participants registered by Thursday, May 15 will receive a book. The registration fee for the 2015 Spanish Language Bee is $15.
